ESTABLISHMENT DIVISION
(Staff Welfare Organization)

NOTIFICATIONS

Islamabad, 18th October, 2006

S. R. O. 1101(I)/2006.—In exercise of the powers conferred by para 25 of the General Financial Rules Vol.1, the following rules are made in respect of reservation of wedding halls and auditoriums, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Reservation of Wedding Hall and Auditorium Rules, 2006.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant, in the subject or context,—

(a) “Organization” means Staff Welfare Organization;

(b) “Authority” means Director-General, Staff Welfare Organization, Establishment Division, Government of Pakistan, Islamabad, or any other officer authorized by the Director-General to take appropriate action on all matters relating to the wedding halls and auditoriums;

(c) “Federal Government employees” means the Government Servants (serving, retired or deceased) paid from Civil Estimates except those belonging to Pakistan Post Office Department, Railways, autonomous or semi-autonomous bodies and those paid out of defence budget;

(d) “dependent” means son, daughter, real brother and sister dependent upon the Federal Government Employees; and

(e) “Charges” means the charges prescribed by the Establishment Division in consultation with the Finance Division for reservation of wedding halls and auditoriums.

3. Eligibility and order of precedence.—(1) All Federal Government employees and their dependents shall be eligible to arrange marriage, social, recreational, religious and cultural functions in the wedding halls and auditoriums subject to payment of prescribed charges.

(2) Persons other than Federal Government employees may also be eligible for reservation of wedding hall or auditorium subject to payment of charges prescribed for them.

(3) Seminars or functions in commemoration of national or religious days or events may be arranged on recommendation of regional heads i.e. Chief Welfare

Officer or Staff Welfare Officer in collaboration with reputed registered associations, etc., free of charges.

(4) Activities of political nature shall not be allowed.

(5) Reservation shall be made on first come first served basis. However, while making reservation national or religious activities shall be given first priority, personal functions of the Federal Government employees second and then the other activities. In case of tie between Federal Government employees/their dependents and others, preference in reservation will be given to the former.

4. Procedure of reservation.—Application for reservation of hall or auditorium may be submitted at least seven days before the function to the concerned Chief Welfare Officer on the prescribed form as per Annex-A along with proper documents and security money in advance. The Organization is not bound to keep the provisional reservation intact if charges are not paid in advance. However, in case of cancellation of reservation before three days of the function, no cancellation charges shall be levied and a new date can be fixed for function in consultation with the officer concerned against the already paid fee.

5. Use of wedding hall or auditorium.—Maximum two functions will be arranged in a day. The timing will be fixed with mutual consultation.

6. Charges.— All dues shall be received in advance. The applicant shall deposit the reservation charges into Government Treasury or National Bank of Pakistan as per advice. The concerned Welfare Officer or any official authorized by him shall receive the security and labour charges in cash. Entries shall be made in the register prescribed for the purpose. The security amount shall be refunded to the applicant within two days after the function with the approval of Regional Head. The charges shall be as under:—
